BOOK SYNOPSIS

The fifteenth installment in Patrick OBrians widely claimed series of Aubrey/Maturin novels is in equal parts mystery, adventure, and psychological drama. A British whaler has been captured by an ambitious chief in the sandwich islands at French instigation, and Captain Aubrey, R. N., Is dispatched with the Surprise to restore order. But stowed away in the cable-tier is an escaped female convict. To the officers, Clarissa Harvill is an object of awkward courtliness and dangerous jealousies. Aubrey himself is won over and indeed strongly attracted to this woman who will not speak of her past. But only Aubreys friend, Dr. Stephen Maturin, can fathom Clarissas secrets: her crime, her personality, and a clue identifying a highly placed English spy in the pay of Napoleons intelligence service. In a thrilling finale, Patrick OBrian delivers all the excitement his many readers expect: Aubrey and the crew of the Surprise impose a brutal pax Britannica upon the islanders in a pitched battle against a band of headhunting cannibals.
